☐ Career Objective

Looking for a remote full-stack developer role where I can contribute with React.js & Node.js skills, grow with a collaborative team, and solve real-world problems through clean and scalable software.

Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Shehroz Bibi, a Full Stack Developer based in Sialkot, Pakistan. With a passion for building useful software, I've developed multiple real-world web applications — including an Airbnb-style booking platform and an Amazon-style e-commerce app. My key strengths are adaptability, fast learning, and end-to-end development.

I am seeking a remote role where I can learn, contribute meaningfully, and grow within a team. My code is public and available for review — and I'm always open to feedback to keep improving.
